THIS IS IRSC

Deepening and defining community

In 2025, the Isabella Rose Stage Co stepped into a powerful new chapter. Our community - cast, crew, students, and families - grew beyond expectation, filling our classes, rehearsals, and productions with energy, dedication, and heart. With rising class numbers and an ever-strengthening presence within the wider Southern community, IRSC continues to evolve into a place where performers of all ages come to be challenged, supported, and inspired.

Looking to 2026

As we move into 2026, IRSC is taking meaningful and exciting steps to strengthen our shared identity. Our focus will be on cultivating a deeper sense of belonging both inside our studios and throughout our productions. Through unified programs, creative opportunities, and community-centred initiatives, we aim to reinforce the values, spirit, and artistic journey that make Isabella Rose Stage Co a home for performers and families alike.

Each section focuses on a different aspect of IRSC in 2026:

FROM ISABELLA R. BRIFFA

I find myself pausing often, as the words “your younger self would be proud” rushes through my brain. I remember 5 year old Isabella lining up all her toys and pretending to teach them routines, or 8 year old Isabella bossing her Aunties and Uncles around at family Christmas, teaching them all the latest jazz moves. So when I look at the growing enrolment numbers, or when I open the doors and excited students come rushing through , or even as I sit down to plan the future of my company, I channel the dreams of my years past.

2026 is about strengthening community, it is a year of defining our distinct identity and implementing it. As a company of teamwork and support, IRSCs group classes will have a stronger focus on group activities and collective growth. All the while, our dedication to contemporary education standards in the arts will keep our syllabus fresh and our methods ever-evolving.

Over the January break, I am eager to crack open the many books and courses I have bookmarked across the year and take the lesson plans to the next level. Come February, the expectations will be clear, the personalised goals will be set, and the material and syllabus will be updated, but, crucially, our community of students will be welcomed back (and introduced to) the familiar, uplifting and tailored classes that sets IRSC apart.

I am incredibly proud of the community IRSC is forming and am eager to continue evolving and growing in 2026.
